

Decanter

the world's best wine magazine

BAROLO RISERVA DOCG GHE 2011

A monopole site on sandy limestone soil. Cherry and raspberry nose with light mocha tones. Full bodied and imposing, but with supple tannins and no excessive extraction. A forward style of Riserva but none the worse for that, as it has sufficient structure. Good length

Drinking window 2018-2030

